Regular Officers Believe Witnesses Were Victims of Shock

NEW CHARGES FILED

Documentary Evidence Alleging "Gross Barbarity" Given Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Silence

thinks of the soldiers have been told in the new committee of witnesses were victims of execution of American soldiers.

These alleged charges of these killings have been filed by the committee in the Third division of the field of inquiry of executive and legislative committees before the Watson investigation.

Colonel Donley denied ever having heard of an illegal execution.

Major General C. Richards, chief of the militia division, denied ever having heard of an alleged execution in France. General Richard commanded the Twenty-eighth division while overseas.

He conscientiously believes that the stress of battle might have caused his troops to commit such acts.

Colonel Contradicts Testimony.

Col. William C. Rivers, of Fort Meyer, Va., also a Third division commander in the world war, contradicted previous testimony on alleged killings near Toul.

"I never heard of a single illegal execution in France," Colonel Rivers testified.

Col. W. N. Craikshank, attached to the war department, Col. E. H. Agnew, Maj. Maxon H. Lough, Maj. L. M. Sylvester and Maj. P. S. Paschal, all officers in the Third division during the war, denied having heard of illegal executions in France.

New Charges Arrive.

A new mass of documentary evidence alleging "gross barbarity" by American officers and illegal killing of American soldiers in France, was submitted today by Senator Watson to the committee.

Frank B. Dawson of Port Townsend, Wash., charged he had seen a man handcuffed to a stake in an open field for 24 hours. The man died from exposure and exhaustion, he said.

Orville L. Klopfer of Denton, Texas, wrote that he saw a private named Alverech slain by a sergeant whom he named as William H. Borne.

"I can tell you other atrocities committed by Borne," Klopfer added.

P. L. Williams of Gales, Ill., declared he was an eye witness to the shooting of a private named Frank White, at the command of Captain Franks.

"I can give you names of other men who saw this killing," wrote Williams.

WILL SEE LABOR JOINING FARMER

Powerful Influence Being Marshaled to Effect Political Change

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Launching of a nationwide farmer-labor movement intended to wield a far-reaching and powerful influence in this year's congressional elections is the purpose of the conference of labor and agricultural leaders to be held at Chicago on Friday.

Would Unseat Reactionaries.

There is no thought of a "third party" movement in the minds of those behind the call for the conference, it was stated. It is their plan of "here from within" instead of from without the republican-democratic parties in a systematic campaign to elect senators and representatives from the middle and lower classes who can be depended on to act in congress against the reactionary forces.

The defeat of the so-called reactionaries of both parties who came up for re-election this year is also planned. The big drive is to be undertaken to change the complexion of the Senate and House of Representatives from the middle and lower classes from the number of industrial and agricultural states from which increasing reports of economic, financial and industrial depressions are now pouring in upon congress giving both "old guard" republican and democratic leaders grave concern.

Not Associated With Lewis. Meeting here to discuss the proposed alliance with John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, it was explained. Spokesmen for the railroad brotherhoods who are to take an active part in the Chicago conference may attend the one summoned by Lewis, but those connected with the miners' labor situation discount the idea that the brotherhoods are likely to be affiliated with the mine workers in the anthracite-bituminous coal strike which many regard as inevitable.

The object of W. H. Johnston, president of the international association of machinists, and those associated with him in calling the Chicago conference is to employ "practical political methods" and to "fight the old line oligarchs of both the republican and democratic parties with their own fire," it is explained.

Attorney's for Four Men Who Were Sentenced to 25 Years to Act.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 7.—Appeal was definitely decided upon today by defense attorneys representing the four alleged Edmond Oklahoma train robbers who were sentenced to terms of 25 years each in the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. for the robbery of mail held at Okemah on February 26.

Would Unseat Reactionaries.

Formation of a national "farmer-labor bloc" which will far exceed in weight and influence the famed "agricultural bloc" while pursuing similar lines for the betterment of not only the farmer but of organized labor and of the people generally, is believed to be the ambition of those behind the new movement.

Agricultural conditions in Iowa, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, and other middle western states, are reported to be extremely propitious for the launching of such a movement from the standpoint of the farmer alone. Serious industrial conditions in New England, West Virginia and elsewhere, are regarded as certain to lend strong support to it.

Patheserial

"White Eagle" is frankly and proudly a western adventure serial. Other types of serials have come, paused for a moment and gone, but the western-adventure serials will last forever. Ruth Roland gave splendid examples of these in "Hands Up!" "The Tiger's Trail" and "Ruth of the Rockies." "White Eagle" excels them all.

Veterans, Weak, Collapse While Seeking for Work

BOSTON, Feb. 7.—Veterans of the world war, weak from lack of nourishment, collapsed as they stood in line at the state house today where they sought employment.

More than 600 veterans answered in the vain hope that they might be included in the 100 to whom work cards were assigned for employment in park systems. The cards had been exhausted Saturday.

A strong effort has been made to set the bonds for appeal which is expected to be not less than $50,000 each. The men are Babe Downey, Ed Dodge, Jeff and Dan Durkee.
